

The do not call list is a good thing. Period! Take it away people are going to be pissed off. It needs to be kept and be as strict as possible.